

Horses

A mother horse is called a mare, and a baby horse is called a foal. A father horse is called a stallion.

There are approximately 200,000 horses in Louisiana.

A horse eats about 10 pounds of grain and hay and drinks 10 gallons of water each day.

Horses learn quickly and can be taught all kinds of skills and tricks.

