

Registering for Louisiana Volunteer Development Training Courses

The Louisiana 4-H department offers a wide variety of training to help you as you work with youth in club, camp and day-to-day settings.

When accessing the training system you may use an openID or create a local account. If you use an openID this will give you access to multiple LSU AgCenter systems including the Volunteer service tracking system and Master Gardener system. You may sign up for an openID through myopenid.com, Google or Yahoo.

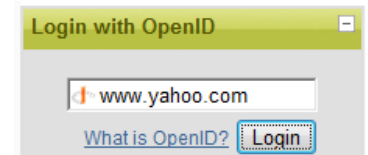

To access the courses using your openID:

1. Go to <http://campus.extension.org>
2. In the left column enter your openID where it says "Login with OpenID."
3. Click Login. You will be taken to the openID provider's website where you will enter your password to login.
4. Fill out the profile form making sure to enter your parish in the county field. Submit Profile.
5. You will need to log into the email account you provided and click the confirmation link from "Admin User" to continue.

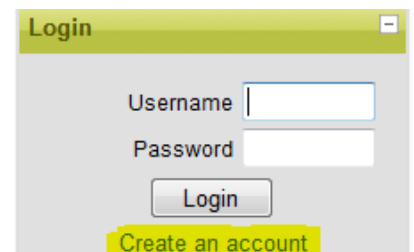

To access the courses using your Yahoo ID:

1. Go to <http://campus.extension.org>
2. In the left column where it says "Login with OpenID" enter "www.yahoo.com"
3. Enter your yahoo username and password.
4. A new web page will load. Click the Agree button.
5. Fill out the profile form making sure to enter your parish in the county field. Submit Profile.
6. You will need to log into the email account you provided and click the confirmation link from "Admin User" to continue.

To access the courses using a local Moodle account:

1. Go to <http://campus.extension.org>
2. In the left column click the "Create an account" link.
3. Fill out the registration form making sure to enter your parish in the county field.
4. Follow directions for creating your account and filling out your profile as directed.
5. You will need to log into the email account you provided and click the confirmation link from "Admin User" to continue.

Once you have logged in:
