

Richard T. Tulley

Professor - Research

School of Human Ecology

201 Knapp Hall
Baton Rouge, LA 70803
(225) 578-7879
(225) 578-2478 - fax
RTulley@agcenter.lsu.edu

Education:

- Ph.D., Clinical Chemistry, Louisiana State University Medical Center
- M.A., Biochemistry, University of Texas at Austin
- B.S., Biochemistry, Louisiana State University

Areas of Specialization:

- Clinical diagnosis and analytical method development
- Glycemic index testing
- Resistant starch
- Homocysteine and cardiovascular disease
- Vitamins and trace elements

Achievements

- Authored over 35 publications
- Recipient, Garry Labbe Award for Contributions to Laboratory Assessment of Nutritional Status
- Recipient, Presidential Citation for service to the Southeast Section and Nutrition Division
- Received almost $375,000 in grants
- Certification as a clinical laboratory scientist-specialist by Louisiana State Board of Medical Examiners

Intellectual Property on the Web:

http://www.lsuagcenter.com/en/administration/about_us/chancellors_office/intellectual_property/