RE: 2022 LCAAA Scholarship Applications

Attached are applications for both the LCAAA 4-H Scholarship (for 4-H Members) and the LCAAA Membership Scholarship (for LCAAA Members). The following provides the guidelines and eligibility criteria for both scholarships:

LCAAA 4-H Scholarship (Guidelines and Criteria).

- Application must be submitted by the deadline of Wednesday, June 1, 2022.
- This is a one-time $500 scholarship.
- Scholarship is open to all current 4-H members. Current and Lifetime LCAAA member's children and grandchildren will receive additional points.
- Must be a high school senior when applying.
- The scholarship is for any college in Louisiana.
- The scholarship is for any field of study. Applicants majoring in Agriculture will receive additional points.
- 4-H agents can submit more than one 4-H applicant per parish.
- A letter of recommendation from the 4-H agent must accompany each application form.
- The scholarship search committee, consisting of LCAAA members, will select the best candidate.
- The recipient will have to show proof of completion of one semester or quarter with a 2.0 or better GPA and proof of re-enrollment in school before being awarded the scholarship funds in the spring of 2023.
- Applicants may only receive one of the LCAAA scholarships.

LCAAA Member Scholarship (Guidelines and Criteria)

- Application must be submitted by the deadline of Wednesday, June 1, 2022.
- Member must be in LCAAA for 3 consecutive years.
- Amount for the scholarship to be $400 to $600 (provided the money is generated). No more than $1,200 given in any one year.
- Member is eligible to receive the scholarship once for every graduate degree or specialization program and eligible to receive funding once in every 3-year period for other professional development activities.

All applications must be completed and returned by Wednesday, June 1, 2022. Completed applications can be sent via email to sdutile@agcenter.lsu.edu or by regular mail to the following address:
