

LSU AgCenter Food Incubator

Join us for a step-by-step presentation on how to start a food business, information about the LSU AgCenter Food Incubator, Whole Foods and Buy Local Program, LSU LBTC and testimonials from Food Incubator Tenants. Don't miss this presentation if you are interested in launching a food business or renting a facility for your new food business.

Introducing the
LSU AgCenter Food Incubator
September 27, 2013
10 a.m. - noon
214 Efferson Hall
Highland Road at W. Parker
Boulevard
(on the LSU campus)
Baton Rouge, La.

(see below)

The new LSU AgCenter Food Incubator will allow you to draw upon the many educational resources of the LSU AgCenter Department of Food Science and:

- Develop your innovative food product in our kitchens and laboratories.
- Access the expertise of LSU AgCenter food science faculty.
- Shorten business development time with incubator resources...and more.

RSVP Information: To reserve your spot at the new LSU AgCenter Food Incubator presentation, RSVP by September 20, 2013 to Gaye Sandoz at gsandoz@agcenter.lsu.edu
