East Carroll Parish 4-H Advisory Leadership Council
Meeting Minutes

The 4-H Advisory Leadership Council held a meeting on Tuesday, April 7, 2015 at 1 p.m. at the 4-H office.

Nine were in attendance including the following LSU AgCenter employees: Regional 4-H Coordinator Terri Crawford and Assistant Extension Agent Lekeisha Lucas-Powell (4-H).

Lekeisha opened the meeting with a welcome and introduction. She explained the purpose and importance of the East Carroll Parish 4-H Advisory Leadership Council.

Lekeisha invited Terri Crawford to conduct a brainstorming exercise to help identify issues in East Carroll Parish. She posed a question to the group, “What issues are facing the youth of East Carroll Parish?” The group was given time to brainstorm ideas that are affecting the parish.

Top 4 priorities to be addressed in 2015-2016 by the LSU AgCenter and its partners – as agreed upon by ALC members are:

- Healthy Living (16 votes)
- Community/Cultural Awareness (14 votes)
- Technology (8 votes)
- Ag Awareness (3 votes)

Lekeisha’s main focus for the upcoming school year will be Healthy Living followed by Community/Cultural Awareness, Technology and Ag Awareness.

Before the meeting was adjourned, Lekeisha thanked everyone for participating in the meeting and donating their time. She stated the topics are great and she is very excited about implementing them in her program for the upcoming year.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:30 p.m.
