

St. John the Baptist Parish 4-H & St. John the Baptist Parish Libraries Edible Book Contest

This contest is to celebrate National Library Week and aims to celebrate books, art, food, and culture. This contest is open to all youth in grades K-12 who attend school and/or reside in St. John the Baptist Parish.

CONTEST RULES

1. The dessert must be made from edible materials.
2. Each edible creation must be a representation of a favorite fictional or non-fictional literary work (edible books can look like a book in form and shape, be inspired by a book or author, can be a pun of a book title, can refer to a book character, reproduce a book cover, or have something to do with books in general).
3. All entries must be family-friendly. The judges reserve the right to reject any entries deemed inappropriate or offensive.
4. A photo of the book cover must accompany all entries.

AWARDS

- Best in Show
This edible book has it all: creativity, polish, and flare.
- Funniest/Punniest
The edible book entry will most likely put a smile on your face! Clever, humorous, or super-silly, it makes your stomach roar with laughter and rumbles with delight.
- People's Choice
The general public will vote on their favorite edible book.

Entries must be submitted on Thursday, April 10, 2025, at the Leroy D. Williams Memorial Library (Reserve Branch) between 5:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.
