

BEGINNER CATTLEMAN PROGRAM 2023

Designed for beef cattle producers with 10 years of experience or less and for people interested in starting a beef cattle operation.

This is a hybrid course with online materials and in-person workshops.

Program Features:

- In-person workshops at the Red River Research Station in Bossier City and the DeSoto Parish Extension Office in Grand Cane.
- Webinars and pre-recorded videos for instruction between workshops.

Introduction, Cattle Handling, Facilities, and Equipment	March 17 th - Red River Research Station
Forages, Pasture Management, and Hay Production	May 12 th - Red River Research Station
Nutrition and Reproduction	July 14 th - De Soto Extension Office
Cow-Calf and Seedstock Operations	September 8 th - De Soto Extension Office
Financial Management & Marketing	December 15 th – De Soto Extension Office

Cost: $250; Checks made payable to the LSU AgCenter and mailed to:

LSU AgCenter
Attn: Ashley Edwards
11959 Highway 9
Homer, LA 71040

Registrations are due Friday, February 17, 2023.

For more information, please contact Ashley Edwards at akedwards@agcenter.lsu.edu or 512-818-5476.